Fuller & Fuller Celebrates 40th Anniversary!

Although Herb and Carol Fuller did occasionally wonder if one of their children might choose to follow in their footsteps, little did they guess that all three of their children would become attorneys. Fuller and Fuller Attorneys was founded in 1972 when Herb and Carol decided to start their own family business. Jay Fuller worked during his high school years at the law firm as a janitor and gardener. Marya and Nina Fuller got their introduction to the law firm as receptionists, typists, and ultimately as paralegals, before going to law school and becoming full-fledged members of the firm. In 1979, Carol Fuller left the law firm for 13 years while she served as a Superior Court Judge.

During the 1990's the Fuller law firm added another Fuller. Leonor Fuller, Jay's wife, joined the other family members in 1991. Previously, she was a well respected prosecutor and civil litigation attorney with the City of Seattle Law Department.

Recently, Jay and Leonor's son, Evan, became the third generation of Fullers to attend the University of Washington Law School.

The current partners in the law firm grew up with the law and liked it so much they made it their life's work. We are proud of the representation and assistance we have given thousands of clients over the years and thank you for giving us the opportunity to help you, your family and your friends.
